

Jaglot Skardu Road S-1 in mountainous terrain for National Highway Authority (NHA)

Detailed Design and Construction Supervision for Improvement and widening of S-1 (Jaglot Skardu Road)

Client National Highway Authority Cost National highway assigned the project to carry out Topographic survey, Soil Investigation Detailed Design preparation of tender document and subsequently construction supervision of 85 kms of road in mountainous terrain where road is only mean of communication of link of northern areas of Pakistan with rest of the Pakistan

Services provided were surveys, soil and sub-soil investigation, traffic surveys and analysis, preliminary engineering, feasibility, detailed engineering, bill of quantities, cost estimates, contract documents, bid evaluation and supervision of construction until completion.